Self isolate until at least 3 days (72 hours) have passed since recovery [defined as resolution of fever without the use of fever-reducing medication and improvement in respiratory symptoms (e.g., cough, shortness of breath); AND, at least 7 days have passed since symptoms first appeared.

Have you had direct contact with a confirmed case?

Yes

Sanitize, Self-Monitor and Social Distance

No

14 days of self-isolation and symptom watch - If you become ill or a confirmed positive case please see above.

Sanitize, Self-Monitor and Social Distance

General Recommendations

You have symptoms of General Illness (fever, cough, a sore throat, or a runny nose)

Yes

Self-isolate until you have 3 consecutive days of being asymptomatic of all symptoms.

No

Sanitize, Self-Monitor and Social Distance, and stay at home.

Close Contact with a person who has symptoms of general illness (fever, cough, a sore throat, or a runny nose)

No

Sanitize, Self-Monitor and Social Distance, and stay at home.

No

Sanitize, Self-Monitor and Social Distance, and stay at home.

Yes

Self-isolate until the sick person has 3 consecutive days of being asymptomatic of all symptoms.